

Consultant J

Consultant J is a Senior Executive with Capita Strategic Children's Services. He joined Capita in 2006 following a successful career in teaching, education administration and independent consultancy. During this period he also worked as an Ofsted inspector.

His consultancy experience includes:

- Education management support at senior level
- Strategic management and project development at national and local levels - particularly in the area of school improvement
- BSF, Primary Capital Programme, Academies – education visioning, monitoring, evaluation, strategic and operational planning and support
- 14-19 strategic development, planning and evaluation
- Specialist schools' strategic development planning and evaluation
- Education improvement partnerships - strategic development planning, leadership, management, monitoring, evaluation and strategic support
- Cross-phase progression/continuity – strategic development, implementation, monitoring and evaluation
- Parental involvement - strategic development planning (at national, regional and local levels), monitoring, evaluation and linkage to national and international best practice
- AimHigher strategic development planning / evaluation at national, regional and local levels
- Most recently Consultant J has undertaken a consultant placement as BSF Education Lead for a London Borough

Consultant J also has extensive experience of working at a national level including leadership of the Capita team which supported the evaluation of the Primary Capital Programme (PCP) Strategies for Change on behalf of the DfE and taking on the role of Project Director for the national Parents as Partners in Early Learning (PPEL) project.