

Consultant K

Consultant K is currently a Director of Capita Strategic Children's Services and involved in projects with a range of local authorities and schools, for example developing Extended Schools and helping schools and authorities prepare for access to the Building Schools for the Future programme.

Leadership is Consultant K's particular strength. He is able to draw on his many years of middle, senior and headteacher experience in schools, his experience of the complex local government structures he has worked in and previous successful interim management roles with Capita.

Previous roles included acting as Deputy Director for Learning and Achievement in two London Boroughs and as secondary headteacher of an extended school. Additional expertise includes working with the Open University on curriculum evaluation and inspection with OfSTED.

Consultant K has also been able to build on strategic local authority roles he has held – as Head of Advisory Service, as an Assistant Director of a Children, Schools and Families Service and headteacher development on behalf of the British Council and work for NPQH and NCSL.
